

Danish Language Training for International Employees

AB Danish – Danish tutoring for professionals

Do you want to support your international employees in learning Danish?

Many companies in Denmark invest in Danish lessons for their international staff. It improves communication, well-being, and the feeling of belonging – both at work and outside of it.

AB Danish offers Danish lessons tailored to your company's needs. The lessons are adapted to the participants' level, work tasks, and everyday life – and can take place online or in person, either at your company or at our locations in Aarhus, Odense, or Copenhagen.

Why Danish lessons benefit both employees and companies

For the employee:

- More confidence in meetings and social situations
- Better understanding of Danish culture and workplace dynamics
- A clear structure towards passing relevant exams and obtaining permanent residency
- A stronger connection to the workplace and to life in Denmark

For the company:

- Better communication and collaboration in everyday work
 - Higher well-being and retention among international staff
 - Less administrative work when employees gain permanent residency and visa renewals are no longer required
 - A stronger employer brand when attracting and retaining international specialists
